

Response to letter dated February 4, 2001 from Robin Kelly of the Federal Election Commission in reference to 30 Day Post-General Report (10/14/2010-11/22/2010) on behalf of Bob Brady for Congress, identification number C0033740. The correspondence references three contributions to Bob Brady for Congress. All three checks appear meet the criteria for 48 Hour Notice Reports. Although the contributions appear on this report, the contributions were actually received by the Committee prior to the period that required the preparation of 48 Hour Notices. Members of the campaign, who are located in Washington, DC, did not forward these particular contributions to the treasurer, Louis Farinella located in Philadelphia, PA, in a timely manner for deposit to the Committee's bank account. Going forward, individuals working on the campaign will be advised to forward all contributions to the treasurer in a timely manner to assure proper recording and reporting of those contributions.
